	FOCUS	CONTENT	ORGANIZATION	MATERIALS	DELIVERY	EFFECTIVENESS
4 EXCELLENT	Excellent ideas about the theme. Evidence of having internalized the material and having thought deeply about it.	Several detailed descriptions and examples. Excellent research; evidence of having used several authoritative sources.	Extremely well organized; very smooth transitions from one idea to the next; easy to follow. Teammates' contributions merge seamlessly.	Expertly constructed materials that convey the message clearly and cleanly. Good use of visual aids. No typos.	Very professional attitude, maintained eye contact with the audience, well-rehearsed and confident, excellent diction, tone of voice, and body language.	Activities very effective at eliciting audience participation and engagement.
3 GOOD	Good ideas about the theme. Evidence of having internalized the material and being able to explain what was learned.	Detailed descriptions and a few examples. Good research; evidence of having used more than a couple of authoritative sources.	Well organized; smooth transitions from one idea to the next; mostly easy to follow. Teammates' contributions merge mostly well.	Well constructed materials that convey the message clearly. Adequate use of visual aids. Only a few typos.	Professional attitude, maintained connection with the audience, confident, good diction, tone of voice, and body language.	Activities designed to elicit good audience participation and engagement.
2 SATISFACTORY	Adequate ideas about the theme. Evidence of being able to explain what was learned.	Some detailed descriptions and examples. Adequate research; evidence of having used at least one authoritative source.	Somewhat organized; needs improvement in transitioning from one idea to the next; some difficulty following. Not immediately evident that teammates' contributions complement each other.	Materials convey the message adequately. Basic use of visual aids. Some typos.	Positive attitude, made an effort to connect with the audience, adequate diction, tone of voice, and body language.	Activities designed to elicit good audience participation and engagement.
1 NEEDS WORK	Unclear whether any ideas on the topic were developed. Evidence of not being able to explain the material.	Few descriptions and examples. Unsatisfactory research; little or no evidence of having used any authoritative source.	Poorly organized; no regard in transitioning from one idea to the next; difficult to follow. Teammates' contributions don't seem to complement each other.	Materials are put together poorly and/or distract the audience from the message. Inadequate use of visual aids. Several typos.	Negative attitude, made no effort to connect with the audience, poor diction, tone of voice, or body language.	Activities designed without regard to audience participation and engagement.
